Report of the Cultural Committee on International Mother Language Day

Date: 21/02/2024

Subject: Observance and Activities of International Mother Language Day

Introduction: International Mother Language Day (IMLD) is celebrated every year on February 21st to promote linguistic and cultural diversity, as well as the preservation and protection of mother languages. The celebration of this day is aimed at raising awareness about the importance of languages in fostering cultural heritage, community identity, and educational development.

Objective: The Cultural Committee recognizes the significance of mother languages in building a more inclusive and harmonious society. Our primary objectives for this year's celebration are to:

1. Raise awareness about the value of preserving mother languages.
2. Encourage multilingualism and cross-cultural exchange.
3. Foster respect for linguistic diversity and the right to use one's mother language.

Proposed Activities:

1. Language Awareness Campaign: A week-long campaign leading up to IMLD will be launched, featuring posters, social media content, and speeches emphasizing the importance of preserving mother languages.
2. Cultural Performances: Traditional dance, music, and storytelling performances in different mother languages will be organized to showcase the rich cultural diversity within our community.

3. Language Workshops: Interactive sessions will be held where attendees can learn basic phrases or expressions from various local and international languages. The focus will be on enhancing understanding of linguistic diversity.

4. Panel Discussions and Lectures: Experts, linguists, and cultural leaders will be invited to discuss the challenges faced in preserving endangered languages and how individuals can contribute to keeping their mother language alive.

5. Language Book Fair: A book fair will be set up featuring literature in multiple languages. Local authors and poets will be encouraged to participate and present works in their mother tongues.

6. Educational Programs for Schools: Schools will be engaged through art competitions, essay writing, and language recitals to emphasize the importance of their mother languages in shaping their identity and world view.

7. Public Statement: A public statement or declaration will be made by the committee emphasizing the cultural and societal importance of language preservation.

Conclusion: The Cultural Committee is committed to celebrating International Mother Language Day in a manner that not only highlights the importance of linguistic diversity but also encourages active participation from the community. Through a combination of educational programs, artistic expressions, and community engagement, we aim to foster a deeper understanding of the need to preserve and protect languages as vital components of our cultural identity.

Recommendations:

Adequate funding and resources should be allocated to support the planned activities.

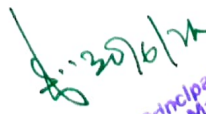

Collaboration with educational institutions, cultural organizations, and language advocates is recommended to ensure a wide reach.

Media and local influencers should be engaged to promote the celebration of IMLD and its importance.

This report has been prepared by the Cultural Committee for the successful observance of International Mother Language Day and its alignment with our goals of fostering cultural understanding and language preservation

Report of Event

Cultural Committee

Name of Event: Felicitation Programme of Alumni and ISRO Scientist Dr. Md. Mosarraf Hossain

Date of Event: 16.10.2023

Summary of Event:

The successful landing of the Lander Module of ISRO's Chandrayaan 3 on moon's surface on 23rd August was a euphoric moment for all Indians. The joy was even greater for Abhedananda Mahavidyalaya as the team of scientists at ISRO responsible for this remarkable feat had one its own. When the country applauded this achievement, we were exhilarated and proud to find Senior Scientist at ISRO, Dr. Md. Mosarraf Hossain, the alumni of Abhedananda Mahavidyalaya, as part of the team of ISRO scientists responsible for this remarkable feat.

To celebrate this moment and honour the man of the hour the Cultural Committee of Abhedananda Mahavidyalaya with the Students' Union of the college organised a programme to felicitate Dr. Md. Mosarraf Hossain. The Felicitation Programme was held on 16.10.2023. The programme had an inaugural song sung by the students of the college. The students who participated in it were, Sumana Sarkar, Ishika Mazumdar, Riya Mondal, Swata Chatterjee, Sulagna Pal, Amina Khatun, Ummesalma Khatun, Deblina Banerjee.

The highlight of the event was the experience shared by Dr. Hossain. It was an enriching talk. There is much to learn from men like Dr. Hossain.

Report of Event

Cultural Committee

Name of Event: Tree Plantation Programme

Date of Event: 18.07.2023

Summary of Event:

Deeply aware of mankind's duty towards Mother Nature, Abhedananda Mahavidyalaya with The Forest Department of the Government of West Bengal organised a Tree Plantation Programme on 18.07.2023 at the college campus. Saplings of various trees were planted, re-affirming our vow of a greener campus and a healthier world.

The occasion was celebrated with a song presented by a team of enthusiastic students of the college (Swagata Chatterjee, Esha Paul, Sohini Mitra, Risha Majumdar and others). A dance was also performed by Sohini Mitra and Deblina Banerjee.

The programme witnessed the hearty participation of students, teachers as well as non-teaching staff.
